COURSE STRUCTURE

Here is a list of things you should know to start your semester off right.

1. Please review the syllabus carefully and make sure you are a good candidate for this intensive online course.
2. Note that all due dates are fixed and there is no makeups or extensions of due dates without a documented emergency.
3. Complete the material in each Weekly Module according to the posted schedule in your syllabus.
4. Links to the Quizzes and HWs are in the module in which they are due.
5. Links to the Exams and Discussion Boards are in content folders on Bb.
6. Due Dates are found in your Syllabus & Calendar content folder on Bb.
7. Availability of Exams varies and is found in the syllabus schedule and on the calendar.
8. Availability of Quizzes & HWs will be one to two weeks before their due date (some like to work ahead).
9. Availability of material (slides, examples etc.) will be posted up to an exam (some like to work ahead).
10. HWs - are not timed, so you can save and come back to work on it, but you have to submit to get a grade.
11. Quizzes and Exams are timed (15 min and 90min respectively) and there is a penalty if you exceed the time limit.
12. Blackboard will log you out when the time is up so Submit before you lose your work. Also, keep track of your own time.
13. You will be able to see the correct answers on the HWs and Quizzes after the due date. On Exams, you will see what you got wrong.
14. All homework, quizzes, and exams will be monitored for misconduct and if detected, student(s) are penalized.
15. If you want to see any of your grade details, or the correct answers on the exams, please make an appointment by email.

IMPORTANT: Put ALL Due Dates on whatever calendar you use daily (hard copy, outlook, Gmail, etc.). Do not count on the Bb calendar. I cannot tell you how many times I heard " I thought the due date was....." (fill the blanks). This is an ONLINE course and there are NO make ups. The due dates are on different days of the week, but always at midnight 11:59pm. Once the due date arrives, the link for the Exam/HW/Quiz disappears.
